POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE WED.

A wedding which came as a surprise to many of their friends occurred Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 13th, when Miss Abbye Sparkman became the bride of Frank Sadler. The wedding was solemnized near Whitleyville, Esq. E. F. McCain performing the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends of the bride and groom.

The groom is a young man of worth and high standing, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sadler, of Stone. His bride, the attractive daughter of Mrs. Lou Sparkman Terry of Gainesboro, Rt-2, is a young woman of charming personality and is very popular. Both have a wide circle of friends, with whom this paper joins in wishing them an abundance of happiness.

TEXOLA, TEXAS.

Texola, Okla.
Nov. 30th, 1921.

Dear friends in Jackson County: If the editor will permit I will write a few lines that will probably be of interest to, at least a few of the Sentinel readers.

We are having some very dry weather here. No rain since in September, and we are needing it badly. The old wooden cisterns will soon fall to staves, if it don't hurry and rain.

I get my Jackson County Sentinel regular, and I think lots of it. I would like it better if the correspondents would write more regular.

I haven't seen anything from Fowler Loftis, of California, in some time. Come on you California boys why don't you write like the man from Yuby Dam? We all know that the Yuby Dam man is the D-L-- in Tenn.

J. P. Johnson was in Texola last week with 24 head of hogs to sell. The writer sold 22 head the same day, receiving $6.40 per 100 pound.

Everything is cheap here now. Corn is going at 30 cents; Cotton, 15 cents; cows, $20 per head; calves, $10 and $12; good mules, $100; good young mules, $35. to $40; alfalfa hay, $20 per ton.

All feeling very well and able to work. More of you people write to the paper.

I remain,
M. A. Loftis.

SANTA CLAUS LETTERS.

Dear Santa. Please don't forget me on the 24th.

Demoville Draper,
Haydenburg, Tenn.

Dear Santa: Don't forget this little girl. Ines Hardcastle, Haydenburg, Tenn.

Think of me, Santa Clause.
Hooper Hardcastle,
Haydenburg, Tenn.

Dear Santa: I am a little girl 8 years old. I have tried to be very good all the year, and I want you to please bring me a doll and little stove, and some nuts, candy, apples and oranges.

Your little friend,
Roselee Hawkins,
Gainesboro, Tenn, Rt-2.

Dear Santa Clause: I am a good little boy 4 years old. I want you to come and bring me a lot of good things. I also have a sweet little sister and don't forget her, and all of the other good little boys and girls.

Good by Santa.

Joe Hargis,
Granville, Tenn.

MRS. JOSEPHINE LOFTIS.

Mrs. Josephine Anderson Loftis, age 73, wife of the late William Loftis, died at her home on Cumberland river four miles north of Gainesboro Sunday evening, Dec. 11th, of heart trouble. She was stricken about noon, Sunday, and died at 7 o'clock, p. m.

Funeral service was held Monday afternoon, conducted by Bro. Marion Harris and Bro. Henry Hall, in the presence of a large congregation of friends of the deceased, after which her remains were laid to rest beside her beloved husband in the Hall cemetery.

Mrs. Loftis was one of the county's most noble women, and was loved by all who knew her. She was a life long member of the Christian church.

She is survived by two adopted daughters, Mrs. Davie Hall and Mrs. W. L. Gentry, both of this section. She is also survived by two brothers, Tom Anderson, of Gainesboro, Rt-3, and Will Anderson of Texas.

MRS. GUY ROGERS.

This community was deeply grieved over the death of Mrs. Guy Rogers, 19 years, 2 months and 29 days, which occurred at her home in Big Bottom Thursday night at 11:30 o'clock, Dec. 8th. She leaves a husband, tiny baby, weighing only four lbs, a mother and a wide circle of relatives and friends to mourn her death. The bereaved ones have our deepest sympathy.

Mai was always loving and kind, and had a smile for all. She joined the Christian church at the age of 15 and lived a faithful servant of her Master. It was so hard to give up my loving friend, but the Lord had a better place for her up yonder.

I'm glad I can truthfully say she was always a faithful friend of mine.

Alice Scantland,
Meagsville.

WHEN NERVES ARE UNSTRUNG

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Builds Up Vigor and Strength

There are times when men and women cannot help losing strength. They try to do too much or they lose sleep or do not eat enough food that nourishes. Blood becomes sluggish because poisons clog it. Faces grow pale and pasty looking. It is not long before nerves get unstrung.

The best way to start a change for the better is to take a course of Gude's Pepto-Mangan. It builds the blood. The weakness from a lack of red cells in the blood is overcome. Gude's Pepto-Mangan sends a fresh supply of red cells streaming through the blood. Good blood pure and free from poisons, starts building vigor and strength. Sleep is better, appetite keener, so that the body becomes properly nourished. Druggists have Gude's Pepto-Mangan in both liquid and tablet form. The name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" is on the package.
